

ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPH.

The Labor Strikes.

New York, May 30.—The strikes continue and the prospects of a speedy settlement of the trouble between the employers and workmen does not appear so cheering. The workmen of Stetson & Sons are co-operating with other piano makers. No additional shops are reported to-day as conceding to the demands made by the workmen. It was said, however, that the employers will hold a meeting to-day or to-morrow and arrange for the general acceptance of the men's demand. The piano forte makers, together with the cabinet makers, have appointed a Joint Committee to wait on the Governor and ask him to restrain the police from interfering with the Committees in visiting the workshops. It was announced in the Germania Assembly rooms that the piano makers and cabinet makers of Pittsburgh are on a strike, and that the Boston piano-forte and cabinet makers will strike on the 1st of June if their employers do not concede eight hours to form a day's work. The desk makers are co-operating with the cabinet makers, and say that when they recommence work they will contribute 50 cents a week each toward a general fund to support their cause in case of advance action in the future by the employers. The horsehoes will enter on a general movement on Monday. A strike will then be arranged in case of the non-compliance of houses in shorter hours of labor.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The weather to-day is lowering and disagreeable, with occasional showers, interfering with the ceremonies of decoration day. As many who would have participated will be prevented from doing so.

In the Circuit Court of Morgan county, Illinois, at Jacksonville, yesterday, the testimony in the case of Henry Hester, on trial for the murder of his wife, at Winster, Tazewell county, last November, was closed. The last witness for the prosecution, being Charles, aged 17, and Mary, aged 15, the children of the defendant and his alleged victim. They testified to continual quarrels between their father and mother, and that the former had several times threatened to put his wife out of the way, and that he had often beaten and maltreated her. Both children were away from home the day the murder was committed, but their straightforward testimony as to the circumstances before and after the death of their mother, tends strongly to confirm the general belief of the father's guilt, and will probably result in his conviction.

LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, May 29.—Miss Elizabeth H. Patterson instituted suit against the proprietors of the United States Hotel to-day for thirty thousand dollars, claiming that the porter of the hotel told the proprietors that he saw men going into the proprietors' room at unreasonable hours, and that he refused to allow her to remain in the house. She was also discharged from a lucrative position on account of the evil report.

A negro roustabout on the steamer Robert Burns, in a fight yesterday on the boat, about forty miles below Louisville, with other deck hands, received a horrible gash across the abdomen from which his bowels protruded. The wounded man was taken to the Marine Hospital here in a dying condition. The murders were arrested.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—A special to the Chronicle, from Sparta, Kentucky, says: The man John Brannan, who murdered his wife yesterday by splitting her head open with an axe, was hung last night by a party of about one hundred men, who collected in front of the Owenston jail, about one o'clock and demanded the keys from the jailor, which were reluctantly given them. They then demanded the prisoner John Brannan, took him from the jail, carried him about half a mile from town and hung him to a tree. None of the authorities were aware of the demonstration. His wife will be hanged to-day. They leave two children. No cause is known for his killing his wife.

For Sale.

FOR SALE.—A promising bay Colt, 5 years old, 15 hands high, blooded stock, will make good time if properly handled. Call on J. F. & S. H. McKee's stable until Saturday morning, June 1st, at 10 o'clock, at which time he will be sold to the highest cash bidder, at Wickham's Auction Rooms.

ROBINSON, 100 Main street, Wheeling, W. Va.

ISLAND LOTS FOR SALE.

Forty choice Building Lots on Wheeling Island. Price from $400 to $1,000 each. Terms.—One-fourth cash, the residue in equal installments at one, two and three years, with interest. JNO. P. GILCHRIST, At Top Mill.

Cheap Mill Property FOR SALE.

The new Steam Saw Mill at the head of Wheeling Island is offered for sale on very reasonable terms. This Mill is capable of cutting from 8,000 to 10,000 feet per day, and has the best Log Harbor in the West. Also a 4 acre Lot in the town of Martinsburg will be sold separately or in connection with the Mill. This Lot is situated a short distance above the Furnace and is a splendid locality for Glass Houses or other manufacturing buildings. For particulars, enquire on the premises, or of S. B. WILLIAMS, Cor. of Walnut and Second Sts., Wheeling Island.

SALE OF FOUNDRY FIXTURES.

I offer at private sale the Patterns, Flasks and Fixtures in Foundry, belonging to the late firm of W. W. Miller & Co. The purchaser can secure a reasonable lease of the Foundry and grounds. The building is 55 feet by 65 feet, centrally located, with good light and water supply. It is well adapted for the necessary appliances of a first-class Jobbing Foundry. For further particulars apply on the premises to J. H. MILLER, Receiver.

DWELLING HOUSE FOR SALE.

I offer for sale the house which now occupies the site of the late firm of W. W. Miller & Co. The house is a substantial one, with a good cellar, hot and cold water in bath-rooms. The house is well located and in every way a desirable property, being but a little over a square from the Ohio River. The house is a good one. S. B. WILLIAMS, Cor. of Walnut and Second Sts., Wheeling Island.

BRICK STABLE.

For sale, four horses, and a carriage house. Any one wishing to purchase can examine the premises at any time.

DECORATION DAY.

The Procession, Speeches, &c.

Decoration day has become a national holiday, and is not only so recognized by the government, but fast coming to be observed as generally as New Year and Christmas. It is well that it should be so for whatever differences of opinion there may be as to how such a day should be observed, it is conceded by all that its observance speaks well for our country, and our people; speaks so plainly that all the world may know that as a nation we honor the memory of the brave who fell on the battle field. And then how appropriate that now when the war is a thing of the past, that we should forget it; forget the bitter feelings engendered by it, and come together on such a day as brothers and decorate alike the grave of friend and foe.

The day was very generally observed as a holiday by our citizens most of the business houses being closed in the afternoon and many during the entire day.

The procession formed at the corner of Fourth and Monroe streets at two o'clock and a little before three, the column moved down Monroe to Main, preceded by a brass band; next came Company C, National Guard in full uniform. As to the debut of Company C, we were quite favorably impressed. The appearance of a body of uniformed men on our streets in the capacity Company C took yesterday as something of a rare occurrence in the last few years, and the rank and file, as well as the officers of the company, deserve a modest compliment at least. The marching and such evolutions in the manual of arms as they went through, gave evidence of a considerable amount of discipline. The only hint necessary is, that no little disturbance on the pavement while marching, should call the attention of the men in the column to such a degree as to make them turn their eyes from the front where they always should be when at Attention.

Then came Post Thoburn, G. A. R., followed by carriages containing the speakers, clergymen, citizens, &c. The Marshals were Messrs. Hugh Sterling and Clarence Irwin. The line of march was down Monroe to Main, up Main to Washington, up Washington to Market, and thence by the National Road to the speakers' stand, which was erected on the brow of the hill just above the toll gate, and south of the entrance to the cemetery. Arriving at the speakers' stand, Captain Carlin called upon Rev. A. J. Lyda, who made a very appropriate and impressive prayer. General Capewell was then introduced. He said he was present by invitation of the committee to participate in these solemn and sacred ceremonies, not in honor of the living but in honor of our fallen heroes, to cherish among their memories; to remember those who fought shoulder to shoulder with us; to remember those to whom we promised on the battlefield, with hands uplifted toward heaven, that we would perform some sacred and holy duty for them.

He said there may be those present who will ask if the presence or men clothed in uniform will not bring up bitter animosities? I answer for myself and comrades, no; it is all forgotten, and we remember only the dead. There is not an old soldier present to-day, who is not proud that he is an American, and has been a soldier. Our country will soon rise up and be the grandest of all the countries on the globe, for we have liberated from our national escutcheon that which was a national disgrace; it was a curse but is now gone to return no more forever; and to-day, life and liberty are secure in all parts of our country. He said we are here to strew with flowers the graves of those who fell defending the old flag. Their death was crowned with victory; and to-day we realize that victory. Young men, there is a great future in store for you, for God has lavished his blessings upon us and our country; let us be proud of our country and proud that we are Americans. The speaker stated that it was not a time to make long speeches, as that was not what the people were present for.

Capt. R. H. Cochran was then introduced and spoke about as follows: He was present with no preparation, but as the committee had kindly invited him, he would say a few words. He felt that it would be a trespass on the audience to detain them long as the eloquence of the heart was far more appropriate than mere eloquence of words on such occasions. He said this glorious occasion is one calculated to do us all good; we have met to give manifestation to the fact that we appreciate the acts and valor of those who fell in the late war. We have cars and drubbes upon us—one after another we will be gathered with our comrades, and we must keep hallowed and sacred that for which our comrades fell. Let us see that the widows and orphans are not neglected—that they are properly educated and cared for—let us live as to make this land brighter and better still, "a land replete in beauty, unequalled in glory and a resting place for the oppressed of all nations," and then the cry ten thousand years hence shall be:

Over the land of the free And the home of the brave.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cochran's address, the band played a national air, and Rev. D. W. Fisher pronounced the benediction, when the crowd dispersed and attended to the duties of the day—that of strewing the graves of the fallen soldiers with flowers. This was done, and we believe not a grave missed its floral tribute. After an hour or so spent in the Cemetery, the bugle sounded and the column again marched back to the city. The G. A. R. and Company C continued their march down Market street, and thence across the creek, returning by the new bridge to Market and Monroe. We forgot to mention in the proper place that Company C was the recipient of a splendid flag just before marching from their rendezvous. The flag was presented by Mr. Thomas Darrah, the presentation speech being made by Mr. J. E. McKennan and received by Captain Trimble. No doubt Mr. Darrah will long be kindly remembered by Company C for this timely and handsome gift.

Take it all, in all the ceremonies yesterday were a grand success, and had there been a greater abundance of flowers it would have indeed been a gala day. The season, however, being several weeks later than usual, it was a very difficult matter to obtain flowers.

POSTOFFICE ITEM.—Wm. McWaltz has been appointed postmaster at Link's Grove, Monroe county, vice H. P. Bare, resigned.

TRAIN FIRED INTO.—Last evening the passenger train over the C. & P. road due here about 6 o'clock, was fired into this side of Steubenville. Our informant could not state positively whether it was at Mingo or LaGrange. Several shots were fired, it was stated, but fortunately no one on the train was hurt. We heard the opinion expressed that the object of the miscreant's dastardly attempt at murder, was a negro on board. We shall probably hear further particulars to-day.

SHOULDER HURT.—Yesterday morning as Capt. Henry Mason was riding along the road near Boggs' run, carrying a post hole digger on his arm, his horse stumbled, and in an effort to break the fall, Capt. M. sustained quite severe injuries on one of his shoulders. Two men who happened to be near, assisted him to a house where he received proper medical attendance.

IMPROVEMENT.—We notice that the owner of American Hall, in Centre Wheeling, is improving its exterior by putting on an elaborate cornice, changing the style of the windows, and putting in an open, iron front on the first story. When completed, the building will present a handsome appearance, and be a credit to that section of the city.

LOT HOLDERS' MEETING.—Attention is called to the meeting of the lot holders in Mt. Wood Cemetery this evening, in the Court House. A full attendance is requested, as the annual election of officers is to be held, and other business of importance will be brought before the meeting. See advertisement in another column.

POLICE COURT.—This court sustained a complete "whitewash," yesterday morning, there being not a single offender in the cells, nor had any been permitted to go at large after arrest by giving security for his appearance.

RETURNED.—Our friend, F. M. Porter has just returned from the East with a new stock of Boots and Shoes. His plan of selling at retail at wholesale prices, has proved so successful as to justify him in keeping up his stock to the requirements of the trade. He has added in connection with his other stock, a fine line of Hats and Caps, of the latest styles, which he proposes to sell in the same way he sells Boots and Shoes—that is, at wholesale prices. In quality, style and low prices, he proposes to lead the trade, and our citizens may congratulate themselves that the high prices they have heretofore paid for Boots and Shoes, and Hats and Caps, have been abolished. We advise our readers to give Frank a call. Remember that he has removed from the old stand, and go to 133 Main street.

This like was never before known, Summer Silks that cost 85 cents in gold to import, selling at 60 cents at Henry Brues'.

A GREAT SUCCESS in the way of a concert and anniversary, by interesting little children, may be looked for at Washington Hall, to-night. The seats are all to be free. The little ones, once the children of bitterness and woe, now bright and well cared for, are to be dressed in holiday attire. The gentlemen who are to speak are well known, prudent, and interesting, and the reports of officers, a history of suffering relieved and sad hearts made glad. Altogether the programme for the night's anniversary of the Children's Home promises to be one of the best ever yet rendered. As you can go and take your friends without charge, and as everybody else can do the same, the hall will be filled at an early hour.

Over all the cheap counters that have ever been in Wheeling, the cheapest of fine Dry Goods ever displayed in the city can be seen at Henry Brues'.

PITTSBURGH VOCAL CLUB CONCERT.—The above club was greeted with about as thin an audience as we ever saw; to be very precise, there were just sixty-four people in the house, ushers and all. As far as the concert was concerned it was far above ordinary, and should have been greeted with a full house, and that it was not does not speak well for Wheeling. Had it been the "Grand Dolly Varden Minstrel Troupe," the hall would have been crowded and the manager's pockets well filled, but being a good troupe, the management found empty seats and experienced the loss of a good many dollars.

Just think of buying a handsome Summer Silk at 60 cents, worth $1.25, at Henry Brues'.

If you want choice early Vegetables and Fruits, go to McKee's, Market street, below McLure House.

New Music.—Dolly Varden Quadrilles, Dolly Varden Galop, Dolly Varden March, Dolly Varden Polka, Dolly Varden Schottisch, Dolly Varden Waltz, and Dressed in a Dolly Varden Song. All very popular. Price, 50 cents each. For sale at V. Harding's Music Store, 100 Market street.

The greatest sacrifice ever known, just received from New York auction, elegant Summer Silks, never sold under $1.25, to 60 cents at Henry Brues'.

FRESH SHAD.—The finest of the season at reasonable rates at N. McKee's, below McLure House. Call early.

For a few days longer, the cheap ten cent Sheet Music at Shell's Music Store.

HANDSOME Summer Suits just received from New York auction, reduced from $1.25 to 50 cents at Henry Brues'.

ONE HUNDRED PARASOLS, all new designs, just opened at Henry Brues'.

NO LADY can do without a Hoop skirt or Bustle, manufactured at the Green Front, 123 Main street.

If you want a Summer Suit at half what it cost, go immediately to Henry Brues'.

I was walking down Main street to-day,

Went out on a shopping trip. And the boys all called out after me "Keddy, your old dress is ripped." There I thought the matter over. I figured in my mind. And I went to B. W. Morrison's. And bought a nice new dress. The old dress that I can send that's kept on my shelf. If you don't believe what I have said, do and "see how it is myself."

Bob always has the nicest stock. That's kept on my shelf. If you don't believe what I have said, do and "see how it is myself."

at the Improved Sewing Machine room, No. 40 Monroe street, Wheeling, West Virginia.

EUREKA ORGANS.—New lot receiving and for sale on the Renting Plan or otherwise, very cheap, at Shell's Music Store, Monroe street.

TALK about your cheap counters, if you want to see cheap goods, go to Henry Brues'.

LADIES' Undergarments and Suits sold at the Green Front, and no Eastern cheap counter goods, but are manufactured here in your own town.

ALL goods reduced in price to suit the times at Henry Brues'.
